

Free School Books Scheme

St. Nessian's National School
Mungret
Co. Limerick
Roll No. 14409N

Aims:

- To provide textbooks, workbooks, copies and stationery (where funds permit) to the pupils of St. Nessian's National School.
- To ensure, as far as possible, that all pupils will have access to all necessary school textbooks, workbooks, copies and stationery (where funds permit) from the beginning of the school year.

Background:

As part of Budget 2023, it was announced that primary school children would be provided with all necessary textbooks and workbooks free of charge from September 2023. This Free School Book Scheme is to be built on the existing Book Rental Scheme in the school, which formally came into being at St. Nessian's National School during the school year 2014 – 2015. The Free School Book Scheme is to provide a grant of €96 per pupil in order to cover the cost of textbooks, workbooks, copies and stationery (subject to available funds).

Administration of the Scheme:

The Free School Book Scheme will be administered by a committee consisting of the Principal, Deputy Principal and members of staff under the guidance of the Book Scheme Coordinator. This committee, in conjunction with the Book Scheme Coordinator, will make decisions regarding the Free School Book Scheme on an ongoing basis.

Membership of the Scheme:

Membership of the Free School Book Scheme is open to all pupils attending St. Nessian's National School. No deposit or payment will be required to join the Scheme.

Operation of the Scheme:

Book lists, copy lists and stationery lists will be provided by class streams to the Book Scheme Coordinator in April of each year. After they have been approved by the Principal, the Book Scheme Coordinator will organise and place orders for any required textbooks, workbooks, copies and stationery, subject to funds available. These will be distributed to the relevant classes.

Textbooks, workbooks, copies and stationery (where funds permit) will be given to the pupils on the first day of each school year and at different times during the school year. Any stationery provided to the pupils as part of the Free School Book Scheme will be considered classroom resources and therefore will be kept in school. Pupils will need to have their own stationery materials such as pencils, erasers, pens, etc. at home in order to be able to complete homework tasks. Textbooks will be collected from the pupils in June, and will be checked for damage. All textbooks will remain the property of St. Nessian's National School, but pupils may keep workbooks and copies that have been written into.

Textbooks will be stored over the summer holidays in the relevant classrooms.

Provisions under the Free School Book Scheme:

The Free School Book Grant will cover the provision of all required textbooks, workbooks and copies to all pupils in St. Nessian's National School. If funds from the grant for the Free School Book Scheme remain, they may then be spent to provide stationery items to be used in the classroom setting. A list of possible stationery items that may be provided to pupils is available in Appendix A. Funds left over after this may be used to pay for Art and Crafts materials and/or photocopying, and may also be used for online and digital resources if they replace books. Additionally, any remaining funds may be retained by the school in order to replace textbooks in the following year. An account of expenditure will be forwarded to the Department of Education annually.

Pupils with Special Educational Needs:

Pupils who are operating on a differentiated or alternative programme will be catered for under the terms of the Free School Book Scheme.

Ownership of the Books:

Textbooks, workbooks, copies and stationery provided under the Free School Book Scheme will remain at all times the property of St. Nessan's National School and may be subject to inspection at any time by a member of school staff.

Changing Textbooks and/or Workbooks Currently in Use:

The replacement of textbooks that are currently in use in the school with a new scheme is a costly exercise. Therefore, all changes must be approved by the Principal, and class teachers must agree to use new textbooks for a minimum of five years.

Substituting workbooks currently in use in the school must also be approved by the Principal. No class stream shall be allowed to include additional workbooks on their book list without the prior approval of the Principal.

Stationery:

The Free School Book Scheme allows for the provision of stationery. This is subject to the availability of funds after the costs of providing textbooks, workbooks and copies are taken into account. Therefore, any stationery provided by the school is subject to change annually, as it will be dependent on the availability of funds, and parents/guardians may receive a list of stationery items to be purchased for their child for use in school. If stationery items are provided by the school, they are categorised under classroom resources, and therefore, such items are to be kept for use in school only and will not go home. This includes pencils, pens, erasers, colours, Pritt Sticks and so on. For this reason, all pupils must have such items available to them at home in order to complete their homework tasks. Some items, such as folders and display books may be taken home when required for homework tasks. Stationery items may change from year to year. A list of potential stationery items that may be provided to pupils is included in Appendix A.

Payments from Parents/Guardians

The Free School Book Grant will cover the following:

- Textbooks
- Workbooks
- Copies
- Stationery (when funds are available)

Parents/Guardians will not be asked to buy textbooks, workbooks or copies, or to make a contribution to the school towards the cost of these.

The Free School Book Grant may also go towards paying for Art and Crafts materials and photocopying, but realistically, having paid for the items listed above, there will be little to no money left to fund them. Therefore, as in previous years, parents/guardians can be asked for a payment to cover the costs of these items.

The Free School Book Grant does not cover co-curricular activities such as swimming, basketball, gymnastics, etc. Therefore, as in previous years, parents/guardians will be asked to pay for these activities. Parents/Guardians will receive an electronic payment request in June of each year to cover the above costs.

Opting Out of the Free School Book Scheme:

There is no requirement on the part of parents/guardians to take part in the Free School Book Scheme. If parents/guardians do not wish to avail of the Scheme, they will be provided with a book list and can make their own arrangements regarding the purchase of textbooks, workbooks, copies and stationery. The school is not obliged to refund the parents/guardians the cost of such purchases.

Leaving St. Nessian's National School Mid-Year:

If a pupil leaves St. Nessian's National School during the school year, all books and any related classroom resources the pupil has been using are to be returned to the class teacher before he/she departs.
